ORDER

On this 12th day of June, 2008, comes for attention of the Court an application of the United States for an Order, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3771(d), authorizing alternative victim notification procedures. After examining the application the Court finds:

(A) That the number of potential crime victims in this matter renders compliance with the notification procedures in 18 U.S.C. § 3771(a)-(c) impracticable; and

(B) That the alternative notification procedures proposed by the government are reasonable, sufficient and will not unduly complicate or prolong these proceedings.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the United States may provide notice to each of the trade group associations identified in the government's Motion rather than to individual potential victims.

SO ORDERED this 12th day of June, 2008.
